January 15 is the deadline for articles in the February issue.

PJ's Page

We recently came across the Annual Meeting packet from 1954-55. The theme for the meeting was "We Build for Tomorrow." Pastor Nelson, in his letter to the not yet formed congregation, noted that their ministry was established on three "stones": Faith – Prayer – Sacrifice.

Much has changed since then! Average worship attendance was 168 in 1955. Average Sunday School attendance was 196!!! 196!!! Where did we put all of those children?

The budget for that year was $9554.42. The pastor's salary was almost half of the budget. The building fund balance was $18,653.98.

They had a Canvass Committee comprised of seventeen men who visited potential members as well as those already committed to the young congregation, to ask for their financial commitment to the building fund as well as to the general fund. Those gentlemen include the fathers of two of our current members. There is also a member of that committee who sends a very generous financial contribution to Luther Memorial each year to this day, although he has not been a part of the congregation for many years.

What an interesting document to look through! This large worshipping community didn't have a building or a settled place to meet. They had to go door to door, house to house, to solicit support and involvement. And they did it all on the stones (Pastor Nelson's term) of Faith, Prayer, and Sacrifice.

We don't think much about sacrifice these days, because the culture has changed enough that it's not a stated value. Still, sacrifice is a term that is not unfamiliar to those who follow Jesus. Generally, when we think of his sacrifice, we think of it in terms of his death. I've been thinking of the other sacrifices Jesus made as he healed the sick, taught the crowds and the disciples, sought after a place for prayer and rest, and continuously resisted the powers of the empire. Mary, his mother, also sacrificed: reputation and relationship and any sense that she could shield her first born from harm. Joseph sacrificed reputation as well, as he raised this child who had come from God and who was God. The disciples sacrificed as they followed Jesus and eventually most of them were martyred anyway.

So little is asked of us on this Christian journey because for so long, in the American west, Christianity and the empire have been willing dance partners. That is changing, though. More and more people are finding the hierarchy and hypocrisy of the Church to be more than they can bear.

What, then, is the response of the Church? I suggest that we go to Pastor Nelson's "stones" of Faith, Prayer, and Sacrifice. Faith, not in ourselves, but in Jesus. Let us hear anew his call to care for the outcast and stranger in sacrificial ways. Let us follow his command to put aside our own desires, take up our cross, and follow him.

Prayer will sustain us when the going is hard, as it will certainly be. Prayer will not operate as some sort of magic bullet; instead it will put us in relationship with the God who is always as close as our breath.

And let's revisit sacrifice. Let's think again when we say that it's too cold/hot/early/late/rainy/sunny/inconvenient because the Seahawks/Mariners are playing to come to worship. Let's think again when our response to the request for time or involvement or financial support feels just a little more than we want to give.

This congregation exists because those who came before us sacrificed. They had faith in the Triune God and in God's call to plant this congregation in the Broadview neighborhood. And they soaked their work with prayer.

As this new decade begins, may we visit anew how we support and steward the ministry God has entrusted to us. And may we be full of boldness as we share the Good News of God in Jesus Christ, who has come into the world, and who is coming again.

Faithfully,
+ Pastor Julie Hutson

Outreach Ministry

“Just as each of us has one body with many members—and these members don’t have the same function—so all of us, in union with Christ, form one body. And as members of that one body, we belong to each other. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to each of us.” Romans 12: 4-6

If you recall, throughout the month of September we sat down together in small groups to discuss the past, present, and future of Luther Memorial. A common theme that emerged from these conversations was the need for community and staying connected with each other. As Paul writes in his letter to the Romans, we all have different functions and experiences but are of the same body. As we continue to function it is necessary for our body to be in sync and relate to each other and as your Minister of Outreach and Community I take this responsibility very seriously. I invite you to join two events occurring that will help us engage in community as the faithful people of Luther Memorial.

First, we will have the first ever Community Inreach Team meeting! This team will meet quarterly to plan community events for Luther Memorial folks. You are invited to come as you are interested in what we are planning. As this is our first meeting, I am tasking us with planning two quarters at once! We will look at Lent soup suppers, Table Talk- On the Road, Easter breakfast, Coffee Hour, and any other community ideas you bring. This meeting will cover January-June so come ready to plan with great ideas! January 12th following worship in Celebration Hall.

Next, I would like to introduce you to, Table Talk- On the Road! Table Talk- On the Road will be hosted by you all in your homes. We will still gather at restaurants in the summer but there was energy to extend Table Talk beyond the summer so that we can have time to gather. Our first gracious hosts for Table Talk- On the Road are Cathy Fransson and Ardene Adams on Thursday, January 30th from 5-7pm. You are invited to bring finger food and a drink of your choice to share. There will be a special musical guest (!) and great conversation. If you are in need of a ride OR willing to give a ride, please email: outreach@luthermemoralseattle.com. If you are interested in hosting the next Table Talk- On the Road please let me know!

I hope you will join us as we continue to be the body of Christ together.

Peace,

Laura Harris-Ferree

EPIPHANY

January 6th is the Feast of the Epiphany. This is the end of the twelve days of Christmas and is generally observed as the time when the Magi arrived at the manger. We remember that they were not “kings” as we think of kings, but astrologers and astronomers who had been studying the stars for signs of Jesus’ birth. There were not three of them, rather, they brought three gifts: gold, frankincense, and myrrh, which would have been gifts customarily given to royalty.

It is also customary to chalk the doorways of homes and churches and other buildings on this day. This year, we would chalk them as:

20 + C + M + B + 20.

The letters have two meanings. First, they represent the initials of the Magi — Caspar, Malchior, and Balthazar — who came to visit Jesus in His first home. They also abbreviate the Latin phrase, Christus mansionem benedicat: “May Christ bless the house.” The “+” signs represent the cross, and the “20” at the beginning and the “20” at the end mark the year. Taken together, this inscription is performed as a request for Christ to bless those homes, churches, and buildings and all who dwell therein.

ELCA Prayer Ventures

Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

God's work. Our hands.

1 What is the significance of your name? On this day we recall the naming of Jesus and pray that when we hear, say or think his name, we will recognize him as our salvation, our uniter and our sure source of love, forgiveness and new life.

2 Throughout National Slavery and Human Trafficking Prevention Month, remember in prayer the men, women and children who are victims of this global tragedy, which disproportionately affects women and girls. Pray for an end to human trafficking and that all who suffer its abuse, injustice and oppression may find freedom, support, healing and safety, especially in our communities of faith.

3 Give thanks for the cloud of faith-filled witnesses who surround us as mentors of faith, vocation and life skills, enriching our lives through their example and sharing their faith, wisdom and knowledge.

4 Pray for the people and communities affected by the recent fires in California, that they will not lose hope but will experience God's presence and encouragement through the care and support of others. Give thanks for the work of Lutheran Disaster Response — with the California synods, Lutheran Social Services of Northern California and Lutheran Social Services of Southern California — to respond with physical, emotional and spiritual care.

5 Pray that the Holy Spirit will help us bear witness in the world to the light and truth of Jesus Christ, that we will be infused with enthusiasm for inviting others to believe and follow, and that all will experience the grace and fullness of God.

6 Feast of Epiphany God's glory is revealed to us in Jesus Christ, born among us and immersed in the messiness, complexity and commonness of humanity for the sake of the world. Pray that we will recognize God's divine presence and activity in the world for the redemption and healing of humankind and for the nurturing of our lives to better emulate Jesus.

7 Give thanks for the gift of wisdom that comes from God. Pray that our faith, with the encouragement of the Spirit, will compel us to share, teach and cultivate God's wisdom and ways among all people — young and old alike.

8 Give thanks and praise to God that we are adopted and called children of God through Jesus Christ, an immeasurable gift of grace, love and forgiveness in which we are immersed.

9 Pray for the ministries that have received ELCA World Hunger Big Dream Grants, which support domestic ministries as they pursue innovative and sustainable approaches to ending hunger. Ask God to help their work flourish and inspire others to seek new ways of ending hunger and lifting the human family.

These petitions are offered as guides to prayer for the global, social and outreach ministries of the church. Thank you for your continued prayers for the life and mission of this church.

10 The good news of Jesus Christ embodying God's love, forgiveness and promise of eternal life is for all humanity; no one should be excluded from this good news and mystery of grace. Ask that the Spirit fill and inspire us to speak enthusiastically about our faith and serve our neighbor — every neighbor — in the name of Christ.

11 Do you have goals, plans, hopes and ventures for this new year? Give thanks and take comfort and courage in the promise of God's love, forgiveness, renewing Spirit and acceptance of us just as we are — in all our human endeavors.

12 Washed in the waters of baptism and touched by the Spirit, Jesus began his ministry and was made known to the world as the Son of God bringing the light and truth of God to the world. Remember in prayer how we are cleansed and renewed daily through our baptism, filled with the Holy Spirit, prepared for a life of praising God and serving our neighbor, and called to share the good news of Jesus Christ.

13 Pray for people who struggle with substance abuse and addictions and for those who are working to rebuild their lives and relationships through sobriety and the support of companions who understand the challenges of recovery. Pray that they will have faith in God's unwavering love and forgiveness in moments of despair, joy, accomplishment, weakness and stumbling.

14 God's voice and presence throughout creation are powerful and awesome. Give glory and praise to God as a humble member of the body of Christ, seeking God's strength each day.

15 Martin Luther King Jr. Day Give thanks for saints, martyrs and leaders, throughout history and today, who have dedicated their lives to racial justice, equality for all people and an end to racism and discrimination, and who stand with the neglected or weary. Pray that our actions, words and service for the sake of our neighbor will be inspired and guided by the witness and example of these bold leaders.

16 Pray for ELCA churchwide staff, volunteers and planning committees as they prepare for "boundless: God beyond measure," the 2021 ELCA Youth Gathering in Minneapolis. Ask the Spirit to guide them as they help youth, young adults and adults catch a glimpse and develop a deeper understanding of Christ's love and what it means to live a life filled with God.

17 Give thanks that God shows no partiality or exclusivity in sharing love, mercy and forgiveness; the good news of Jesus Christ is for everyone and every nation!

18 The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity begins today. Give thanks for the National Council of Churches of Christ in the USA, the Lutheran World Federation, the World Council of Churches and the ecumenical organizations and ministries with whom we journey together toward unity — unity that we celebrate and share in Jesus Christ.

19 Pray that in moments when God says, “Come and see” (meaning “trust and follow”), we demonstrate the same curiosity, hope and faith that moved the first disciples of Jesus, imperfect and uncertain as they were even when face-to-face with the Messiah.

20 Lift up in prayer the names of staff — paid and volunteer — whose vocation and faithful, generous service enhance and support the daily ministry and mission of our congregations and synods, including administrative assistants, business managers, custodians and people responsible for digital communications.

21 Pray for the leaders of every nation, including our own, that they will heal long-standing and recent rifts, pursue just and peaceful agreements and solutions for the well-being of the people they serve, and share resources to relieve hunger and poverty everywhere, without concern for profit or gain for any single nation.

22 Ask God to help us actively mend the suspicion and hatred in our nation and around the world that divide us, frustrate compassion and generosity, and undermine our understanding of how to live in community. Pray that where we are broken or in conflict, God will show us how to be whole.

23 Pray that we will find joy in following the will of God as it is written in our hearts and revealed in Scripture.

24 Thank God for our special relationship with the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), a full communion partner with the ELCA since 1997; pray for the church, its diverse ministries and its members and leaders; and pray that together we will find mutual support, new partnerships and new resources for the work of sharing the gospel and serving our neighbor.

25 Conversion of Paul Reflect on how God has transformed you. Give thanks and praise to God for stirring our lives and calling us to be witnesses and servants doing God’s work in the world. And give thanks for our faith, our unique personal histories, our strengths and weaknesses, and our gifts and skills, even when we are uncertain of their usefulness and relevance in the body of Christ.

26 Praise God for Jesus’ life, teachings, ministry and personal example, which instruct us today as modern-day disciples called to follow Christ, share the gospel, serve our neighbor and grow the church in an ever-changing world.

27 Remember in prayer women of the early church, throughout history and today, whom God has called and equipped as witnesses, bearers and teachers of the faith, and leaders in every corner of the world. They are a blessing to the church.

28 Give thanks for theologians and teachers in our church, in our educational institutions and in our midst. Pray that God will grant them insight and wisdom to help us connect faith with daily life and deepen our understanding of God’s word, ways and desires for us.

29 Ask God for forgiveness for the conflicts that divide our church and our congregations. Pray that when we disagree, we will exercise humility, love, respect and reconciliation, remembering and reaffirming our unity of spirit and purpose as siblings in Christ.

30 Ask God to help us when we feel discouraged or overwhelmed by or detached from the difficult challenge of reducing gun violence. Pray for wisdom, courage and boldness in advocating for legislation and cultural shifts that, though complex or unpopular, will protect the gift of life and honor the handiwork of our Creator.

31 “The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?” Praise God and shout with joy!

Synod News

The Spirit

Volume 37, Number 1

January, 2020

by the Rev. Shelley Bryan Wee, Bishop NWWA Synod

I was sitting in Resident Assistants training at Pacific Lutheran University in 1986. Suddenly the door opened and three people walked in: two men and one woman. They were introduced as the new campus pastors at PLU. I couldn't stop staring at the woman. In my twenty years on earth at that time, I had never met a pastor who was a woman. Pastor Susan Briehl changed my understanding of ministry, what it means to be a pastor, and what a difference it makes when you hear preaching from someone who has wrestled with much of what you have wrestled with, too.

The year 2020 marks the 50th anniversary of the ordination of women into Word and Sacrament ministry. While women have been preaching for thousands of years before this (think Sarah and Miriam and Mary Magdalene to name a few) the predecessor bodies of the ELCA felt called by God to open up the pulpit, the font, and the table to women for the first time after studying scripture and the Lutheran Confessions.

This decision wasn't made lightly. Seminaries, judicatories, and other groups took time to arrive at the decision to ordain women. In the end, though, these various groups realized that there was nothing in scripture, the Lutheran Confessions, or church constitutions to prevent the ordination of women. As Luther Seminary's Board of Directors wrote in 1966, "God has left the details of the ministerial office to the discretion of the church, to be developed according to its needs and according to the leading of the Holy Spirit."

And just like that, the way was open to the thousands of women who have been ordained into Word and Sacrament Ministry in the last fifty years.

While this is an important milestone, we are also mindful that the last fifty years have not been without difficulties. It took ten more years for the first woman of color to be ordained in the Lutheran Church here in the United States. It has only been in the past ten years that LGBTQIA+ people have been able to serve freely. As we celebrate, we also lament the sexism, racism and homophobia that has been part of our church structure. And we are called to work towards a day when all are celebrated and welcome.

In this synod, we are excited to mark this anniversary with some special events. Each woman pastor will be videotaped with their story. At synod assembly in 2020 we will show some of these video interviews. We will also have a festive worship service during synod assembly to celebrate, remember, and look to the future. During this year we invite congregations to commemorate this anniversary. Pastor Nancy Winder, the first woman ordained locally and the 14th woman ordained overall, is happy to come and preach and teach in your local congregation. In addition, there are resources at www.elca.org to use for congregations or clusters.

A brief story: At one of the churches I served there was a man named Dell. On my first Sunday there he came up to me and said, "You know, I didn't vote for you. I don't think women should be pastors." I said, "OK." And left it at that. In spite of telling me that, week after week Dell and his wife were in worship. Week after week they heard me preach. Week after week they received Christ's body and blood as I presided at the Lord's Table.

About three years after I was there, Dell was diagnosed with terminal cancer. I visited him frequently at his home. On one such visit, as I was setting up the Communion elements, Dell said, "You know, I didn't vote for you." I said, "I know." He sat there for a long time in silence. Then he said, "I was wrong." And I looked at him. And I smiled. And I held his hand. And then I reached for the bread and I said, "On the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread ..."

We give thanks for all the women pastors who proclaim the good news of Jesus, who baptize in the name of the Triune God, and who serve at the Lord's Table. We pray that we continue to be made new into the future.

The year 2020 marks the 50th anniversary of the ordination of women into Word and Sacrament ministry.

LMLC News and Events

LET'S CALL A(NOTHER) PASTOR

On the recommendation of the LMLC Council, a Call Committee has been formed and tasked with calling a half time Associate pastor. This position will include an emphasis on Outreach to the Community and Inreach to the Congregation, as well as pastoral tasks of preaching, teaching, and administering the sacraments. This is being proposed as a two year term call with a mutually discerned option to add a third year.

Funding for this position would come primarily from the proceeds of the property sale and fits with the intended use of these proceeds to further the mission of this congregation as we Actively Share Christ's Love in Community.

It is ALSO the recommendation of the Council that Laura Harris-Ferree be interviewed for the position, and if all parties and the Holy Spirit are in agreement, that she be called as our Associate Pastor.

The NWWA Synod has been working with the Council on this vision and agrees that it is a faithful way forward. The Call Committee will be filling out an emended Ministry Site Profile and following the protocol for the calling of a pastor.

Please anticipate attending one of a few informational opportunities (see below for information about the January 5th opportunity), where your questions and any additional details will be addressed.

Watch your emails for other updates.

FIRST SUNDAY FAITH FORUM

First Sunday Faith Forum in January will have a two-fold emphasis.

First, there will be some exploring together around the Feast of the Epiphany. There will also be an opportunity for a first conversation around the Associate Pastor possibility.

All are welcome! Sunday, January 5th. 9:30 in Celebration Hall.

Thank you to everyone who worked so hard to make our Advent and Christmas seasons so wondrous!
